- REQUIREMENTS -

HIGH SCHOOL SOCIAL MEDIA CAMPAIGN CATEGORY

A group of students, supervised by a teacher or a school-approved advisor or mentor, to create a positive, cohesive, and relevant social media campaign featuring videos, graphic designs, and other social media posts that share solutions to helping stop reckless and distracted driving. Social media campaigns should NOT focus on drunk or impaired driving.

Participants must register to enter the contest at createrealimpact.com. Prior to the close of the Entry Period, an eligible high school must submit a publicly viewable YouTube link to the social media campaign highlight video and a link to a publicly viewable Google Drive folder containing the items on the provided Participation Agreement, Submission Guidelines, & Scoring Rubric (“Submission”) to CreateRealImpact@ImpactTeenDrivers.org. Submissions which are not received by ITD will not be entered into the Contest. Only one Submission permitted per Entrant.

Social media campaign highlight videos must be three (3) minutes or less, must include one 30-second PSA sample, and must demonstrate social media campaign planning and execution and positively focus on the importance of avoiding distracted driving and embracing safe driving behaviors to promote teen driver safety.

The Entrant is the school as an organization. Submissions may only be submitted by teachers, school officials, or advisors associated with Entrant, and with Entrant approval. All Submissions must include: school name; school mailing address; submitting teacher/school official/advisor’s name, email address and phone number; and a school administrator’s email address (principal, assistant principal, dean, head of school, or other administrator).

VIDEO AND GRAPHIC DESIGN CATEGORIES

Create an original work showcasing your idea for a SOLUTION or STRATEGY to end reckless and distracted driving. Distracted driving is anything that takes your eyes off the road, your hands off the wheel, your mind off your driving, or keeps your ears from being alert to your surroundings. We encourage participants to go beyond addressing phone use; behind-the-wheel distractions include texting and talking on the phone but also applying make-up, turning to talk to your friends, adjusting the GPS or radio/shuffling the playlist, eating or drinking, or anything else that takes your attention away from the task of driving.

ALL CATEGORIES

Entries should not use the word “accident.” Alternative terms are “crash” or “collision.” The majority of car crashes are preventable based on the choices being made inside of a car by a driver or a passenger. It is acceptable to use the word “accident” to educate the audience about why that term should NOT be used.

All entries must follow the following requirements:

- Not feature imagery or dialogue that is inappropriate, indecent, obscene, hateful, tortuous, defamatory, slanderous, dangerous, or libelous;
- Not promote bigotry, racism, hatred, or harm against any group or individual or promote discrimination based on race, gender, religion, nationality, disability, sexual orientation, or age;
- Not involve being under the influence of alcohol or drugs while driving or drinking alcohol or using drugs;
- Not be created for or entered into a previous Create Real Impact contest or any other contest;*
- Not feature the brand, catchphrase, or logo of any organization, campaign, contest, etc. that is not affiliated with Impact Teen Drivers;
- Not disparage Impact Teen Drivers, Create Real Impact, or any other person or party affiliated with the Create Real Impact contest and administration and promotion of contest.
- While extremely dangerous and highly illegal, being under the influence of alcohol or drugs while driving is NOT the focus of this contest. Entries focused on drinking alcohol or using drugs and driving WILL NOT be accepted.

- COMMUNITY CHAMPION BONUS POINTS FOR INDIVIDUAL CATEGORIES -

An additional way to win educational grant money is by collaborating with your local community champions to use their official social media or other communication platforms to share the importance of safe driving choices. A community champion is a group, agency, or organization in your community whose mission aligns with Impact Teen Drivers' efforts to end reckless and distracted driving. Community champions can be fire departments; law enforcement agencies; health care agencies; schools; community service organizations; city, county, or other municipal departments; etc. Posts shared by family, friends, teachers, or other personal or private social media pages will not be awarded points. This includes posts by individuals who are first responders, medical professionals, etc. and are posting to their personal page or other non-official social media account. Only posts on official social media accounts will be accepted.

Posts by elected officials, such as mayor, town selectman, school board member, etc. are the only posts by individuals that will be awarded points. These posts must be posted through their official social media accounts, not a personal social media account.

To enter this category with your individual Video or Graphic Design, you will need to connect with community champions in your area and request that your entry, or approved Impact Teen Drivers content, is shared on their official social media platforms or by other official communication methods as defined below. To qualify for bonus points, each communication must contain the following information:

1. Your Create Real Impact entry OR one of the approved Impact Teen Drivers content pieces.
2. Links (hyperlinked or text only) to BOTH ImpactTeenDrivers.org and CreateReallImpact.com.
3. A brief caption or description explaining the purpose of the post. An example of this could be the community champion sharing your graphic design entry with a caption: “Check out this amazing graphic made by local teen, Johnny M.! Whenever you drive, don’t forget to keep your eyes on the road, hands on the wheel, and mind on driving.”

We have provided sample introductory email templates at the end of these Official Rules that you can use to get started with your outreach.

Once you have contacted your community champion agency or elected official and they have shared your entry, go to the Create Real Impact website and sign into your account to submit your bonus points. All submissions will be approved or denied by a panel of judges. You will receive points according to the champions you engage, and what/where they post for you. Keep in mind that some social media platforms do not automatically generate thumbnails when posting a link, therefore if you are sharing a Graphic Design entry or Impact Teen Drivers graphic resource, we encourage you to include the actual file in your outreach to your champions.

All information, pictures, or screenshots that you receive from the champions’ posts must be submitted on the Create Real Impact website, through your own account, no later than Thursday, April 27, 2022, by 2:00 p.m. PT. The point system is outlined below. You can have only one post from each category (social media post and mass communication) PER champion, for a total of 1,500 points each. You can work with as many champions per category as you would like. For example, you could reach out to your local fire department, your local police department, and your school’s parent-teacher organization. All 3 agencies could post on their social media and in their monthly newsletter (which is considered “mass communications”). This would award you 1,000 points for each agency, and result in 3,000 points total.

HIGH SCHOOL SOCIAL MEDIA CAMPAIGNS ARE NOT ELIGIBLE FOR THE COMMUNITY CHAMPION BONUS POINTS CATEGORY.
